OFFER TO AUSTRALIAN CLUBS AFFILIATED TO PROBOS SOUTH PACIFIC LTD – or any former Probus Club classed as an “independent”

On the 15 March 2018, our Society successfully obtained from IP Australia, the trademark rights to the name REBUS under Class 45 for potential use by Australian Clubs:

(Personal and social services rendered by others to meet the needs of individuals).

Rebus NZ Incorporated (RNZI) was established in December 2015 to act as a Service Centre for those Clubs which had chosen independence from Australian control. In the period which has followed, some 55 Clubs have become RNZI Affiliates with many more actively considering their affiliation options.

Key features enjoyed by NZ Affiliated Clubs:

- Low affiliation/capitation fees
- Simple Constitution which assures a Club's autonomy
- Access to comprehensive website (no password needed)
- Helpful marketing tools, templates and brochures
- Guaranteed 24/7 response to all communications - within 24 hours or less
- Access to Travel Insurance for Seniors
- General Liability cover $10m
- Quality regalia at affordable prices
- Absolute transparency and timeliness of Financial Reports
- Monthly Newsletters with illustrated content from Club affiliates
- No commission taken on Travel Insurance or regalia

The REBUS name which is an amalgam of Retired and BUSiness has rapidly gained name-awareness throughout our Affiliates' communities and many are experiencing a resurgence in membership retention and growth.

RNZI would like to offer the use of the REBUS name and support, to any Australian Club which may wish to review its affiliation choices. In absolute confidence, please contact us by email or phone to learn more.
